Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Stone (4549721, cited by Applicant).

Stone discloses:

Art Unit: 3671

in addition to the marked up drawings above,

in re claim 1:

a pivot point that is adapted shifting position between the rear end of the lever arm & forward end of the lift arm, it is construed from the prior art that it also has a pivot point in the vicinity of the fulcrum, which can shift position when the fulcrum (31, 33) is "levered" (fig 4).

Art Unit: 3671

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 7-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Stone (4549721, cited by Applicant).

Stone discloses the claimed invention except for making the brackets removably attached, or make it separable.

It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to the brackets of the cross brace removably/separably attached to the braces, since it has been held that constructing a formerly integral structure in various elements involves only routine skill in the art. Nerwin v. Erlichman, 168 USPQ 177, 179.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments filed 3/17/2005 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

In re claim 1:

Applicant refers to a specific element, i.e. pivot pin, when addressing the prior art rejection, however the claim only calls for a "pivot point" & "adapted for," as to the later it has been held that the recitation that an element is "adapted to" perform a function is not a positive limitation but only requires the ability to so perform. It does not constitute a limitation in any patentable sense. In re Hutchison, 69 USPQ 138. While the pivot point is an arbitrary point & not defined clearly in the claim. For example, a proper recitation would be "a hinge having a pivot point." It is construed from the prior art that it also has a pivot point in the vicinity of the fulcrum, which can shift position when the fulcrum (31, 33) is "levered" (fig 4).
